DISCUSSION/ACTION ITEMS

1. Consideration and Action Regarding Extending Town Medical Insurance Coverage to the Town Council

Gus said offering Council the Town's medical insurance coverage has been talked about, May is the Town's benefit open enrollment time; a Council budget change of $100,000 each year would be required to cover costs. Gus said if this is implemented it would impact any current insurance by possibly removing affordability of current coverages, as this is technically offered by an employer.

Mayor Smith said there is more negative with budgeting this coverage. Councilman Hancock agrees.

Item died due to lack of a motion.

Chase Carlson with Benefit Intelligence said the Town has a great employee retention; that is largely due to the benefits offered.

2. Adjournment: There being no further business Mayor Smith adjourned the meeting 5:35pm
